LENTEN RESOURCES

During this upcoming season of Lent we will make available several resources. One of our parish favorites is the Little Black Book. The Little Black Book has six minute daily reflections, from Ash Wednesday through Easter Sunday, on the Passion according to Mark. We will also include a bulletin insert for each of the six weeks of Lent. Each insert gives insight and information about the season of Lent that you can contemplate personally or share as a family. We hope you were able to use the bulletin inserts during Advent last year and we hope you are able to enjoy and utilize the resources given out during Lent this year. Let us know if you would like to see more information and resources like these or offered in other formats.

WHAT ARE THE RULES FOR FAST AND ABSTINENCE?

Ash Wednesday, February 14, and Good Friday, March 30 are days of abstinence from meat and days of fast, that is, limited to a single full meal. The other Fridays of Lent are days of abstinence from meat. The law of abstinence binds all Catholics 14 years and older. The law of fasting binds all Catholics from their 18th birthday until their 59th birthday (canons 97, 1252). "Let the paschal fast be kept sacred. Let it be celebrated everywhere on Good Friday and, where possible, prolonged throughout Holy Saturday, so that the joys of the Sunday of the Resurrection may be attained with uplifted and clear mind." (Constitution on the Liturgy, No. 110) With regard to the obligatory days listed above, however, there are frequent questions about the degree of seriousness of the matter. To paraphrase Pope John Paul II: the obligation to do penance is a serious one; the obligation to observe, as a whole or "substantially," the penitential days specified by the Church is also serious. No one should be scrupulous in this regard; failure to observe an individual day of penance is not considered serious. People should seek to do more rather than less. Fast and abstinence on the days prescribed should be considered a minimum response to the Lord's call to penance and conversion.

Sacrament of Reconciliation at Queen of Martyrs is by appointment. Please call Fr. Joshua at 937-277-2092.
